The Hancock County Farmers Market is still open every Saturday and Wednesday morning according to Mrs. Elaine Hunter, local farmer. Ms. Hunter said fall and winter vegetables are now available, as well as regular vegetables. Available most market days are okra, green beans, homegrown tomatoes, sweet potatoes, red potatoes, sweet peppers, squash, crowder peas, green onions, mustard, collard and turnip greens, and even watermelons. Fresh yard eggs and honey among potted plants are also available.

"JAWS OF LIFE"

Robert Boudin, Civil Defense director, reports the Jaws of Life campaign has a total of $285 on deposit and other pledges totaling $1,700 towards the campaign. Boudin said only enough money has been raised or pledged for about one half the price of one unit, and persons wanting to help can leave a donation at Gulf National, Hancock or Merchants Bank. If you prefer, make checks to "Jaws of Life" and mail to Box 1325, Bay St. Louis, 39520. All donations are tax deductible.

BOOTH OPENINGS

Pat Murphy, booth chairman for the Hancock County Fair Association reports several booth spaces still available for the Fair. The annual County Fair will be September 25-30. Interested parties can contact Murphy at Coast Electric, 467-6535. Chamber retailers interested in booths can contact Becky Markel, retail chairman, at 467-6507 or the Chamber of Commerce 467-9048. This is the first year for the Chamber members to have booths to display their products and Ms. Markel says she still has some openings.

NO TRESPASSING

State Game Warden Patrick Toomey reminds residents that the new state law on trespassing does not only affect hunters and fishermen. When a parcel of land is posted, it is off limits to everyone, no matter what they are doing, according to Toomey. All state and local law enforcement agencies have the authority to enforce these laws.

School bond request ok'd by supervisors

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

Hancock County School District's $3,383,000 bond issue approved by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors Monday will be presented to voters in the Nov. 7 general election.

Supervisors approval of the proposal followed a School Board decision Sept. 15 to seek voters decision on the bond issue.

A new high school, new additions to Hancock North Central Elementary School and creation of a special education center will be funded if the bond issue passes Nov. 7.

Dr. George French of Southern Region School Boards Research and Training Center Inc. in Tuscaloosa, Ala., said the school bond issue will cause an increase of 14 to 15 mills per year in ad valorem taxation.

One mill is equal to about a $24,000 return in taxes at the County's current rate of assessment, said Circuit Court Clerk John D. Rutherford.

Twenty eight mills are being allocated for schools now, added Rutherford.

"It's almost a 50 percent increase in school millage," said Beat Two Supervisor Alton Kellar, board president.

The total bond issue figure of $3,383,000 presented to the Board of Supervisors remained the same as approved by the School Board at last Friday's meeting.

Coast leaders praise Center cooperation

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Hospitality Station at I-10 and Hwy. 607 Tuesday were participated in by a host of federal, state and local officials.

Representatives from across the Mississippi Gulf Coast were on hand for the big event. The Welcome Center, originally scheduled for another location, was brought here through the efforts of a united Gulf Coast.

Roy Anderson, Inc. of Gulfport was awarded the 1.23 million construction job. Ralph Wittal of Gulfport is superintendent of the project for Anderson.

Martin Smith, state senator, was master of ceremonies and recognized those who contributed to the project.

W.H. (Shag) Pryor, Southern Mississippi Highway Commissioner, told the large group in attendance that, "Martin (Smith) deserves a lot of credit because he worked so hard, and so many people have worked hard. If you didn't have had a good legislature you wouldn't have good highways."

When I was elected highway commissioner in 1968, there were no four lane highways in Hancock County. The next Highway I would like to see four lanes, and it is now under study, is 603 from I-10 to U.S. 90," added Pryor.

A.A. (Dolph) Keller, president of Hancock County Board of Supervisors, thanked everyone for working together on the Hospitality Station. "It will mean a lot to Hancock County and all of the Mississippi Gulf Coast," he commented.

Working together was also emphasized by Ocean Springs Mayor D.L. "Pat" Conner. He reminded the crowd about the slogan developed after Hurricane Camille, "Together We will Rebuild."

Council ok's Henley Place Subdivision

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Henley Place Subdivision was accepted by Bay St. Louis City Council Tuesday at a regular monthly meeting.

The Subdivision, located in the western part of Bay St. Louis and owned by Marcia Artigues and Joyce Gilmeyer, will consist of 38 homes in the 150,000 - $55,000 range.

Ronnie Artigues, builder, said the homes will be of three designs: Williamsburg, Contemporary and Ranch Style. All utilities are underground. Construction will start in two weeks on six of the homes.

Council Attorney Joseph Gex, in reporting to the Bay City Fathers, said all correspondence he has received show the subdivision meeting all requirements. There were a few changes the developers had to make before final acceptance by the Council and Gex said as far as he could see all have been made.

Bay St. Louis Subdivision regulations are being updated and new regulations will change the procedures on subdivisions, according to Council members.

Bay school patrons protest conditions

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Bay St. Louis Commission Council members, at a Revenue Sharing hearing Monday, received urgent requests for help from North Bay Elementary school patrons.

Reportedly deplorable conditions at the school were revealed to Councilmen James Thriffliey, Pete Benvenutti, Harry Favre and Fred Wagner.

A group of more than 100 concerned parents and teachers overflowed Council Chambers onto the hallways and front porch of City Hall.

Lack of air conditioning in classrooms, filthy restroom facilities and generally deplorable conditions at the school were among complaints voiced at the meeting.

Cathy Chapman, teacher for 10 years at North Bay, said, "It is so frustrating to look at those hot little faces after recess. I am concerned about those trailers because of the noise and heat they send into my class when I open a window to get some air. And I told we are going to get more trailers - I wonder if their exhaust is going to be blown into classrooms."

Ms. Chapman went on, "My classroom is 95 degrees, it is hot. Our kids have worked for three years (to raise funds for air conditioning classrooms at North Bay), the cost of the air conditioning is getting out of sight. I love my job, my children. They try to work the best they can under these conditions."

Every parent who spoke, some residents for only a year and others life time residents, had high praise for the quality of teachers, the dedication of teachers to the welfare of their children.

A newcomer to the area with children at North Bay said she had first hand experience with the heat helping a couple of hours a day at "It is really hot, I spend a couple of hours and have to go home to cool off, it is a shame the school hasn't been air conditioned," she added.

One parent who attended private schools in Bay St. Louis and had sent her children to private schools, until this year, said, "As far as an education, North Bay Elementary has been great. But I can't believe the conditions of the school. This is Bay St. Louis. If we were way out in the country it would be something else. My five-year-old comes home with tears in the eyes, because she won't go to the bathroom, I can't believe this is Bay St. Louis, 1978."

Joe Pilet, Bay St. Louis resident, commented that she didn't have any children in school but she felt there must be some help. "I wonder if there are any teachers afraid to talk because of being suppressed," she added.

North Bay teacher Nell Woodall said she was a reading teacher and many students who leave the fifth grade are not prepared because of the physical conditions of the building.

"I have to give the students paper towels to wipe off the perspiration from their arms so they can put them down on the top of their desk and hold their books," she continued.

"I saw a boy this afternoon and he was red as a beet, I didn't realize he had an allergy condition caused by heat. It is very difficult to teach and keep the children's attention with sweat pouring down their faces," commented Mrs. Woodall.

Mrs. Woodall further stated, "The BAY SCHOOLS-Page 6A

'Biggest Gumbo Festival yet' scheduled for Oct. 6-8

By RICH ADAMS

The fourth annual Necessaire Crossing Gumbo Festival at Infant Jesus of Prague Catholic Church off Hwy. 603 may well prove to be the biggest since the event was originated, said Father Pierre, co-founder of the three-day extravaganza.

"We plan on making 1,000 gallons of gumbo, and hope to have between 10,000 and 12,000 people attend," Father Pierre said.

The Gumbo Festival was the brainchild of Father Pierre and L.J. Breaux, who decided the community needed a late summer event as the summer heat waned, school started, and vacation excitement ended.

Gumbo for the occasion is made in a 161-year-old, 500-gallon kettle, once used in Houma, La., sugar cane fields.

The kettle rests atop a hand-made trailer, built by parishioners, with six butane burners beneath.

Part of the festivities will be held at the new classroom-community hall complex of the church-completed last May.

The complex is located on 25 acres in Necessaire Crossing, with a lighted horse arena and softball field.

Proceeds from the event will go to the church building fund.

Admission to the festival for Friday is $3.50 per person. Saturday and Sunday admission will be $6.

Children under 12 will be admitted free of charge.

A ticket bought at the gate for admission for the entire three days is $12.

BROTHER EPHREM

Brother Ephrem dies after long career at SSC

Brother Ephrem, (Antoine Joseph Faigoust), stationed at St. Stanislaus High School for nearly his entire career as a Brother of the Sacred Heart, died Tuesday, September 19, 1978 at Hancock General Hospital. Minutes before dying, he was anointed by ordained Brother Albert Guarino, S.C.

Brother Ephrem, 68, a native of Vacherie, La., attended Catholic High School in Donaldsonville, La., and entered the juniorate at Metuchen, New Jersey, where he began his studies for the brotherhood in 1927.

Four years later he pronounced his first vows as a Brother at Metuchen; and at Bay St. Louis, Miss., in 1937, his perpetual vows.

His first assignment was at Bay St. Louis in 1932. Except for brief service at Thibodaux, La., in 1935; in Natchez, Miss., in 1932; and two years in Baton Rouge, La., (1963-1965), Brother Ephrem's life was devoted to the students of St. Stanislaus, mostly as prefect.

During his career, Brother Ephrem taught at the Bay, at Thibodaux, and in Baton Rouge. He also worked in maintenance, in the laundry, and in the canteen at Stanislaus.

A year ago, Brother had celebrated his Golden Jubilee in the Order. He had recently retired.

His parents, now deceased, were Felix J. Faigoust and Scholastica Torres.

The wake was held at the St. Stanislaus Chapel Wednesday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. and again today from 1 to 5 p.m. The Mass of the Resurrection will follow immediately. Burial will be in the Brother's cemetery in Bay St. Louis.

GETTING READY-Father Pierre, co-founder of the Necessaire Crossing Gumbo Festival, checks the 500-gallon kettle used in the three-day festival in Hancock County. Father Pierre anticipates 10,000 people at this year's event, scheduled for Oct. 6-8. (Staff photo-Rich Adams)

Buccaneer Crew Notes Sherry Price

Ladies, it's time to get in shape after a lazy summer, at exercise classes at Buccaneer State Park. Each Monday and Thursday evening, 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the Park Recreation Hall, Bay-Waveland ladies gather to stretch and bend, for 45 minutes and then walk and walk-or run for a mile.

There have been many who have continued the class throughout the summer months are still faithful twice a week. Sure, we sweat during our workout, but do we ever feel great afterwards; come join us if you have the time. The class is free. Participants are asked to bring a mat or towel for floor exercises and wear comfortable clothes and tennis shoes.

Let me also remind residents of Bay St. Louis and Waveland that Buccaneer offers lighted tennis courts and basketball courts for evening recreation. If you enjoy shuffleboard, come out and rent our equipment.

At the Park we have recreation equipment available for rent, most equipment is $5, and when the articles are returned undamaged, the fee is returned, it's that simple.

There are two self-guided nature trails and hand-outs available at the Ranger Station. For the little ones there is playground equipment; something for all ages at Buccaneer State Park.

Q - If a veteran dies in a VA facility, can his survivor request a contract burial service?

A - Except for unclaimed remains, contract burials were ended July 1, 1963.

David Joseph Kenny of Pass Christian is among 42 members of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol's 18th recruit class who will graduate in ceremonies at the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers' Training Academy in Rankin County at 2 p.m. Friday.

James Finch, commissioner of public safety, said this is the largest MHSP recruit training class to graduate from the Academy since 1964.

In April of this year, 20 cadets became MHSP officers and were the first to graduate since 1974.

Finch said that plans are underway for another recruit school to begin possibly within the first quarter of 1979. Governor Cliff Finch and Lieutenant Governor Evelyn Gandy plan to attend the ceremonies.

The cadets will be sworn in by Commissioner Finch, and M.C. Pardue, chief of the Patrol, will present their badges and orders.

Kenny is the son of Mrs. William P. Kenny of Bay St. Louis and the late Mr. Kenny who was killed in the line of duty with the MHSP in December of 1967.

Bruce Partridge, Jr., who was elected class president by his fellow cadets, will respond to the commencement address on behalf of the class.

Partridge is the son of Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol Investigator Bruce Partridge Sr. and Mrs. Partridge of Grenada.

The ceremonies will climax 15 weeks at the Academy where the recruits have spent more than 900 hours of intensive training in the classroom, on special details, on the firing range, and in physical fitness drills.

Retired Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol Officers, as well as the public, have a special invitation to attend the graduation, Commissioner Finch said.

New steel industry eyes Port Bienville

By RICH ADAMS

Engineered Steel Corporation, a newly-formed industrial steel fabrication company from Jefferson, La., presented plans to purchase 25 acres of land at Port Bienville Industrial Park to the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission mission.

Otis D. Sharp, vice president for Engineered Steel, said at the commission's last Thursday night meeting that his company has agreed to purchase terms with Delta Concrete Piling Company.

Sharp said Engineered Steel, with a current payroll in Jefferson of $47,000 a year, will initially employ 15 people, expanding by 25 to 40 employees within 18 months.

Engineered Steel specializes in steel fabrication, and built Cargill Grain Elevator in Reserve, La., reportedly the largest in the world.

Delta, which owns the property at Port Bienville, has been nothing but problems to the commission, said W. W. Webre, commission executive director.

According to Webre, Delta has held options on land parcels for two years, and has not yet developed the property.

The commission granted Delta an extension on its option in July, and Delta must either develop the land before January 15, 1979, or lose the property, Webre reported.

"The only way we can deal with Delta is to fish or cut bait," said commission member Dave McDonald.

"Either Delta builds on the land or we declare them in default and they return the land," he said.

"What we have here is an arm's length transaction," Webre said.

"If Delta agrees to accept the proposal by Engineered Steel, and Engineered Steel agrees to buy, we can agree to the transaction," Webre said.

McDonald moved the commission accept the proposal and Ronnie Artigues seconded the motion.

In other action, Webre presented estimates from dealers for repairs on a bulldozer the commission purchased last month from Hancock County Supervisors for $1.

Estimates for replacement of the under-structure of the bulldozer were received from Metro, a subsidiary of International Harvester in Gulfport; Crown Equipment in Bay St. Louis; and Mississippi Road Service, Gulfport.

Metro estimated repairs at $8,737; Crown Equipment quoted a price of $10,000; and Mississippi Road Service priced repairs at $9,227.

Commissioner Fred Curet questioned the feasibility of repairing the dozer. He said the machine is not worth putting money into.

"We bought the dozer with the understanding we would put maybe $8,000 into it," Curet said.

"Now we're talking about $10,000," he added.

"I'm sure the bulldozer will have a trade in value comparable to, if not in excess of, the amount we put into it," said Webre.

"Maybe we should try to sell it back to the supervisors for $1," Curet suggested.

After lengthy discussion, the commission decided to accept Metro's estimate and have repair work done on the bulldozer.

Curet opposed acceptance of the offer.

Judge Logan resigns

Griffin to preside over October term

By RICH ADAMS

Second District Circuit Court Judge Floyd J. Logan said last week he has resigned his post, effective October 1, and will join Alben Hopkins in Gulfport in private law practice.

Hancock County Circuit Court Clerk Henry Otis said he has not received any official report of Judge Logan's resignation.

"I've heard rumors that he is resigning at the end of September, but nothing official has come in yet," Otis said this week.

According to Otis, Logan's resignation at the end of September will not affect Hancock's October Circuit Court docket.

Logan has presided over only the July Circuit Court in Hancock County, and sat in either Harrison or Stone County in October.

Otis said Judge Rubel J. Griffin will preside over the October term in Hancock County.

Otis said it is up to Governor Cliff Finch to assign a successor to Logan for the remaining three months of the Judge's term.

Democrat Kosta N. Vlahos of Biloxi and Republican Jim Rose of Gulfport are vying in the general election November 7 as Judge Logan's successor for a four-year term, beginning in January.

Conner said, "I have never been able to distinguish the Coast from one end to another."

Barbara Rappold, city clerk, City of Waveland, was happy with the wonderful turnout.

"People coming from the West are looking for the Beach all the time. Now we will have a way to show them the beautiful Mississippi Gulf Coast. This is a great occasion for all of us, thanks to everyone for their support," Ms. Rappold said.

Mayor Zach Anthony of Pass Christian said he is a newcomer but wanted to "Thank all of you who brought this to the Gulf Coast."

Billy McDonald, supervisor from Harrison County, praised Pyron for his help and said he knew Pyron was the big push behind this Hospitality Center.

The first contract on the Welcome Center was awarded by the Highway Commission on February 24, 1976, to Bond Paving Company of Gulfport for construction of base work, asphalt and concrete pavement, fence and erosion control on the parking lot access road and drive to the Center.

On Tuesday, July 25, 1978, the Commission awarded a contract to construct the Welcome Center building to Roy Anderson Jr., Inc. of Gulfport, the low bidder. The contract bid price was $1.23 Million.

The Welcome Center will be the largest one built in the state to date and is of colonial design, portraying the image of Mississippi.

A colonnade will completely surround the building providing a covered entrance at several locations. The interior will have three display rooms, two entrance areas, a reception area, information counter, rest rooms, and an employee office and lounge.

One feature that will characterize the interior design is a spiral stairway and balcony. The building has approximately 9,000 square feet under the roof. The total area encompasses close to 40 acres and will feature picnic areas with covered tables and be landscaped in keeping with the architecture of the building.

After the Center is opened, the A & I Board will staff the Center and provide tourism material. Maintenance of the Building and grounds will be under the State Highway Department.

PROCLAMATION HUNTING AND FISHING DAY

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1978

America's hunters and fishermen were among the first environmentalists. They have traditionally held strong opinions about clean air, good water and a livable habitat for wildlife. They have been in the forefront of the activists who want to maintain these qualities, not only because it is important to them, but because they will benefit all of society.

Through excise taxes on hunting and fishing equipment that were imposed with the full endorsement of sportsmen's organizations, millions of dollars have been channeled into the maintenance and improvement of habitat across the land. Some modern-day environmentalists are not aware of the past contributions that our outdoor sportsmen have made to this cause. And others may not fully comprehend that wildlife populations need to be managed scientifically like all other natural resources. Properly regulated by the states with federal assistance, fishing and hunting are an integral part of wildlife management. Getting this message across by example and not simply by words is a major part of the challenge that lies ahead, and it is one of the basic reasons behind this Hunting and Fishing Day.

I welcome the opportunity of this observance to greet our hunters and fishermen and the organizations that represent them and to commend them on their sensitivity and responsiveness to a movement that deserves the support of all Americans.

Therefore, I, Larry Bennett, Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 23, 1978, as National Hunting and Fishing Day and urge all of our citizens to join with sportsmen-conservationists in a rededication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations.

Where is the Board of Health!

If the deplorable conditions of the restroom facilities exist at North Bay Elementary as reported at the Revenue Sharing hearing Monday night before Bay City Council are true, we just wonder what the State Board of Health is doing about such conditions.

We know the Board of Health had a monumental task this year giving pre-school inoculations, etc., but we know they have the authority to check the cafeterias, and wonder why they aren't interested in the restroom facilities.

If children have to wait to go to the bathroom when they get home from school in the afternoon, as reported by several parents, because they can't tolerate the odors in the bathroom facilities at school, something has to be wrong.

We always thought the job of the Board of Health was to look after the health and welfare of all residents, especially children. The indications we get here is that someone isn't doing a proper job.

In case the Board of Health doesn't know the location of North Bay Elementary, it is less than a half of a block from them on Dunbar Avenue on the other side of the street.

Childrens concern

It was very encouraging to see and hear parents and teachers of North Bay Elementary at the City of Bay St. Louis Revenue Sharing hearing Monday.

Council Chambers overflowed with people into the hall and front porch from the large crowd in attendance. Some estimated more than 100 in attendance.

The group was seeking help through Revenue funds to remedy conditions at their school.

The loudest squawks were about the school's lack of air conditioning, reportedly deplorable restroom facilities and over crowding of students in classrooms.

The thing this County has been lacking for many years seems to have been a concern for the education of our children.

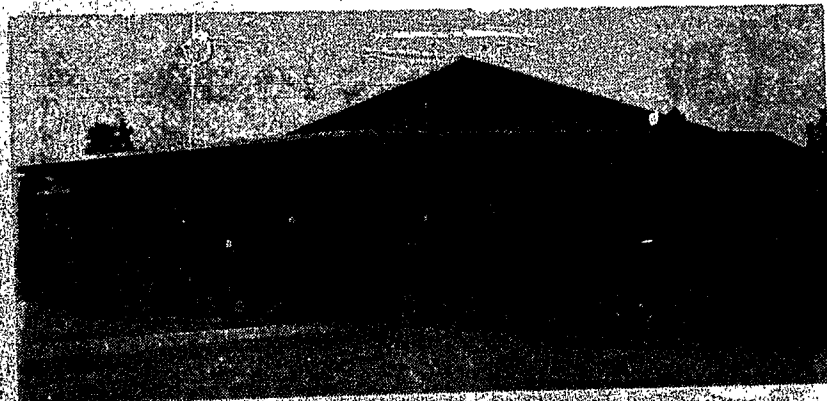

We want to congratulate the parents and teachers for their concern over the preparation of our leaders of tomorrow.

Procedure or pressure?

Ms. Lana Noonan, president of North Bay Parent-Teacher Organization, last Monday was granted a spot on the Bay-Waveland Municipal School Board's agenda for the October meeting.

Ms. Noonan reports she has received a registered letter this Monday from Mrs. Virginia Gex, president of the School Board, saying she will be unable to represent the PTO on the October meeting because she didn't follow a proper procedure in making her request.

Looking at this reverse in decision of the school board only a week later sure looks to us like someone has put the pressure on Mrs. Gex and the School Board. We let you be the judge of that.

LETTERS

To The Editor

Let's have some action

Miss
Hospitality

Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Dear Sir:

Most of the people who crowded into the meetingroom and overflowed into the halls at Bay St. Louis City Hall were parents of children who attend North Bay Elementary School. The ratio of blacks and whites was in balance. There were more women in attendance than men, and there was a sprinkling of teachers present. Very few "concerned citizens" arrived.

These people not only wanted to be heard - they wanted ACTION. City councilmen listened. They heard of the 95 degrees of heat in class rooms, of grimy and sweating little children enduring the odors and stale air in crowded class rooms. They heard of the inexcusable filth in toilet facilities and lack of toilet paper and paper towels. They heard of the dedicated and able teachers who doggedly fought daily to maintain discipline and teach under such adverse conditions.

They heard of the complications faced when trying to bring their grievances to light through set and prescribed channels. There seemed to be inertia on the part of the School Board, they implied. Perhaps a look at the budget might prove some money being spent unwisely that could well be spent on essentials such as soap, towels and toilet paper.

There was an expressed attitude of bewilderment. Information and guidance was needed. How could these conditions within the school be alleviated? Where could information be obtained? Did parents and tax payers have any voice in how school funds were spent? Obviously this group was restless with long-range plans of improvement. Children's characters were being molded NOW. The class rooms were hot NOW. Essential supplies were needed NOW.

The meeting was orderly. People spoke in turn and were heard without interruption. They gave applause when their own feelings were expressed by others. They pledged themselves to work... to cooperate in an endeavor to correct inequity.

Their comments were taped. They were assured there would be a meeting of the City Council and the School Board when these tapes would be heard.

Hearing is a beginning. An expression of discontent helps relieve tension. But hearing is not enough. These people want ACTION NOW.

Surely a nation that can put men on the moon and appropriate billions in foreign aid can and must find ways and means to bring a better quality of life to our greatest potential - those who will guide the destiny of our country in a tomorrow that is fast approaching.

Sincerely,
Joe Pilet

Bay St. Louis

Larry J. Bennett, Mayor
Councilmen
City of Bay St. Louis

Gentlemen:

This letter is long overdue, but I want to give you my thoughts while I watched the Mississippi Miss Hospitality Pageant in the Coast Coliseum in Biloxi on July 29.

As Kathie Koch walked across the stage, I felt our community was very fortunate to have such an outstanding representative.

I also felt a sense of pride, in that our city was one of the 24 cities that sponsored a candidate in the pageant, which is put on by the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board.

The A & I Board goes to great measures to support the tourism departments of these cities that have sent a contestant to the state Miss Hospitality pageant.

As a citizen and taxpayer of Bay St. Louis, I ask that our city continue to sponsor a representative in all future Miss Hospitality pageants.

Thank you.

Very truly yours

Mrs. Paul O. McCormick II

Schools plan early October student census

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

Residents in the Hancock County School District under the age of 19 will be counted from house to house by representatives of the School District in October.

Representatives for the School District will be complying with a Mississippi Law which requires that all children below 19 years of age be counted for a yearly school census report which will be sent to the State Department of Education, said Hancock School Superintendent Terrell Randolph.

Personnel who will go to each household to conduct the census will be determined at an area School Superintendents meeting in Pass Christian today.

Bus drivers and teachers were suggested to do the counting at Friday's Hancock County School Board meeting. "The census will be taken during October and the results will be sent to the State Department of Education by the end of October," said Randolph.

The people who will acquire the census information for the Hancock County School District will be determined at a meeting of the Superintendents of Harrison, Jackson and Hancock counties today, reported Randolph.

Bond Issue...

However, the cost of a new high school to be constructed in the southern part of the county was hiked from $2,192,500 to $2,284,806 in the resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors.

Cost estimates on additions to the Hancock North Central Elementary School rose from the $875,000 approved by the School Board to $903,858 when approved by the Board of Supervisors. An estimate on cost of a special education center also increased from $207,500 approved by the School Board to $214,236 approved by the Board of Supervisors.

These increases are the result of the re-distribution of $100,000 listed as architectural expenses and other fees in the resolution passed Friday by the School Board that were not listed in the Board of Supervisors' resolution.

The figures were changed because they could not be presented to the Board of Supervisors in a resolution in the same way that they were presented in the School Board's resolution," said Superintendent of Schools Terry Randolph.

Dr. Jack Owenby, representative of Southern Region School Boards Research and Training Center, said he will be in charge of the planning part of promoting the bond issue. He said he will plan meetings of teachers, administrators, students and community leaders.

"From these meetings," added Owenby, "we will receive input to assist us in determining what will be needed in the new schools."

Owenby's organization has been hired by the School Board on a percentage basis to promote the school bond issue.

Bay Schools...

dust and cobwebs are unbelievable. In the winter time I have old rusty chairs in my class. The moisture is so bad I have to wipe the chairs before the students use them to keep from getting rust on their clothing at times. We are here begging for our children's sake. I cannot sleep at night. Our children are definitely being affected, we are scarring them for life."

One parent commented on no paper being available in the bathrooms at North Bay. The mother of a new family from Florida said she is amazed at how bad her children look when she picks them up from school in the afternoon. "We are supposed to be accustomed to the heat but it is unbearable for my children," she said.

Another parent expressed concern for her child: "I worry about him coming home dirty, going to the bathroom, no air conditioning now and the possibility of no heat in the winter."

Lana Noonan, president of North Bay Elementary Parent-Teachers Organization, told the Council, "We would like the Council to check over the people they appoint to boards."

Ms. Noonan added, "We talked to the Superintendent of Education in March about us (PTO) meeting with the School Board and were told he would like to have a couple months to do some investigating. And eight weeks later we talked to him and he didn't have time to look it up. Oh yes, he thanked us for coming, for being concerned, etc., and that was it."

"We have tried to go through the chain of command. We have a knot in our chain of command and we would like to have someone undo it. Think about that in your next appointments," Mrs. Noonan said in closing.

Mrs. Judy McCormick, another concerned parent, in talking about the fund raising projects for air conditioning the classrooms, said school officers didn't think window units would be good because, "There are no lights at night at the school, no alarm systems, and vandalism has been high at the school."

Councilman Benvenuti, on asking how much the fund raising project had raised, was told about $8,000.

Benvenuti told the group the City just couldn't take money and spend it without first having plans and specifications and then taking bids on the projects, adding, "We would all go to jail."

Council President Thriffley told the group the only restroom facilities he knew about before this recent issue of the North Bay Elementary problems were, "At the football games when all the boys formed a circle."

Council Harry Favre, in talking about the City giving the school board monies for certain projects commented that, "We can give the monies, but they have to go through the school board and the priorities can be changed by the board."

Mrs. Woodall, commenting on attending all the school board meetings since last December said, "We have a lot of money to spend. One example is the sign in front of the high school, yet when I started teaching here, I asked for teaching aides and wasn't given any. The cost on the sign was at one time $1,200; then $1,784; and the next time I heard $1,900."

In the discussion after the motion was made to accept Henley Place, Councilman Pete Benvenuti, commented, "I know these people have been put through a lot of harassment and I accept the subdivision."

Council was unanimous after a motion by Councilman Harry Favre was seconded by Councilman Wilmer Seymour.

Mayor Larry Bennett said, "I am more than happy to sign the acceptance. The subdivision will be a big asset to the City, especially with more homes on the tax rolls."

A drainage problem was brought before the Council by Gerald Gex, attorney representing E.M. Brignac. Gex said Brignac has a natural drain going through his property and several years ago put in culverts with several clean-outs.

"Trash, limbs and other debris continue to clog the drain because the ditch is filled with weeds, trees etc. In some places you can't even tell if it is a drainage ditch," Gex reported.

Mayor Bennett said the City is waiting for a new budget to rent equipment and cleanup the drain which runs all the way from Spanish Acres under the railroad tracks at the back of Carre Court. "It is going to cost a lot of money," Bennett said.

Mrs. Pam Metzler approached the Council with a problem she is having on construction of a residence on Ibor and Seventh Streets.

Ms. Metzler said she is unable to get a loan because there isn't any sewerage on the street. She said money would be available if her property could drain since the Board of Health has determined ground would percolate if water wouldn't stand.

"There are a lot of trees pushed up in the road, the ditches need to be pulled and the water can drain off my property. It is so wet we can't even walk on it

Councilman Favre said, "We sympathize with you, I think it should go to the school board. I know the situation at the school. I personally feel the teachers should be able to go before the school board," in response to Mrs. Woodall's lack of teaching materials.

Vic Frankiewicz of the Hancock Midas Committee told the Council the school system should not be just talking about present problems, but it should have a long comprehensive plan for the future.

Frankiewicz stated, "We spend about 60 percent of our taxes (on the school system), and we should look into the case of having to add on each year."

A parent of two daughters at North Bay told how he is pleased with the teachers and teaching at the school. "I'm disappointed in the facilities, and the lack of facilities. There is no reason for the restrooms to be in the condition they are in."

Thriffley told the group the schools are receiving the maximum millage for revenues. He also said, "Many Alumni told me there was money left behind from their class, where is the money? My concern is for the children. I can't emphasize this enough."

Ms. McCormick told the Council about two families she is familiar with who moved to Bay St. Louis. One she said had children in North Bay. "They praised the teachers highly, said they were terrific." The condition of the buildings caused them to say, "They have never smelled anything like them before." They left the area.

Ms. McCormick said the other family had children in private schools in Bay St. Louis and decided to change to public schools. After they checked the public schools out and saw the sorry conditions at North Bay, they moved to Long Beach.

One teacher complained about how hard it is to teach over the noise of a fan. Fans cause disturbance in the class, and even with the fan she is exhausted at the end of a teaching day because of the excessive heat, she stated.

Council asked the group if there were a bond issue for school improvements, would they support it. The group replied, "If no other avenues funds are available, yes."

The other request for revenue sharing funds at the hearing were made by Eve McDonald, director of Senior Citizens Activities in Hancock County.

Ms. McDonald told the Council of poor conditions in the Valena C. Jones building where senior citizens activities are conducted. She reported a leaking roof and difficulty in reaching rest rooms because of water coming into halls from the roof.

Ms. McDonald said there is a possibility of getting governmental funds to match on an 80-20 basis for such a project and they have been applied for.

Being no further discussion, Council closed the revenue sharing hearing.

sometimes," Ms. Metzler said.

Council took under advisement the request and asked the Mayor to get some estimates on cost of the project for the next regular meeting on October 3.

Board Attorney Joseph Gex reported the Jimmy Ray Warner case is before U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and it will be heard but he isn't sure when.

Gex was authorized by Council to send a letter to the Main Street contractor putting him on notice for damages for going over the allocated time to finish the project.

There was some discussion on the need of an Engineer by the City on the Main Street project. Gex was requested to consult with some State attorney familiar with the type of problems the City has with the Main Street Project and report to them. Councilman Pete Benvenuti made the motion seconded by Councilman Fred Wagner.

Mayor Bennett recommended Mrs. Linda Haas to the Library Board giving two reasons for her being his selection. She has a B.S. in library science and was a former member of the board during construction of the present facilities and is familiar with the work necessary for future construction in other areas of the Library system.

A motion was made by Wagner and seconded by Wilmer Seymour to accept Bennett's recommendation, but Benvenuti moved to table the appointment, seconded by James Thriffley. The recommendations were tabled.

Favre commented, "I would like to see us as a Council be in agreement 100 percent on all appointments made by us."

Council recessed with a 24 hour notice to be given for the next meeting.

Aquin, Fran Sallinger, and Suzie Kergeson for judging this event.

The girls chosen for sixth grade cheerleaders are Maria Bevenutti, Jackie Setak and Jennie Farve. Fifth grade cheerleaders are Marilena Lewis, Caytee Carter and Michelle Flessala. Fourth grade cheerleaders chosen are Andrea Ambrose, Kelly Koledgiez and Beth Guagliardi.

These girls are practicing every other day and are working hard to support their teams moral.

To finance the Pep Squad and Cheerleaders the girls have a skating party once a year. All money raised goes to support these groups.

Bay High faces "hungry" Pirates at Tiger Stadium

By RICH ADAMS

Bay High Tiger head coach Billy Rhodes is anticipating a "hungry" Pass Christian ball team, coming back from a 21-0 defeat at the hands of d'Iberville, ready to "try to prove something" at Tiger Stadium this week.

"The Pirates have a fine football team, tremendously big, with a lot of fine talent," said Rhodes.

"The offense, with runningbacks Mackie Dedeaux and Gene Langs are going to be hard to contain," he continued.

"We're going to go with a regular game plan and go after them," he added.

Pirate head coach Bob Lumpkin said he is impressed with the Tigers, who lost a inter-city rivalry last week against Hancock North Central.

"This is going to be a tough ballgame. Bay High plays good football," Lumpkin said.

"We made a few mistakes in last week's game, and we've been working hard to correct them. We can't afford to make mistakes against Bay High," he added.

"A lot of work we had done before Friday's game was taken away from the team by d'Iberville," coach Lumpkin continued.

"We've got to play continuous football as much as possible," he added.

Lumpkin said his squad has received no new injuries as a result of Friday's game.

"All we suffered were pretty much bumps and bruises," Lumpkin said.

Tiger coach Billy Rhodes' squad, trying to bounce back from the two consecutive defeats suffered thus far, gained 207 yards against the HNC squad last week.

"We had a few breakdowns in the game that kept us from scoring," Rhodes said.

"I hope we have eliminated those breakdowns," he added.

The Pirates meet Bay High at Tiger Stadium Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

THREE TIMES A CHAMPION—Muhammad Ali, in white trunks, delivers a roundhouse right that glances off dethroned heavyweight champion Leon Spinks' head. Ali made history Friday night as he won a unanimous decision over Spinks after 15 rounds of punishing boxing. The decision was 11-4-1, 10-4-1, and 10-4-1 in favor of Ali, winning the World Boxing Association's Heavyweight crown from Spinks seven months to the day after Spinks gained the title in Las Vegas. Gulfview defeats

Charles B. Murphy

The Gulfview Elementary seventh and eighth graders handed Charles B. Murphy a 14-0 loss Tuesday afternoon to give the Gulfview squad a 2-0 record for the season.

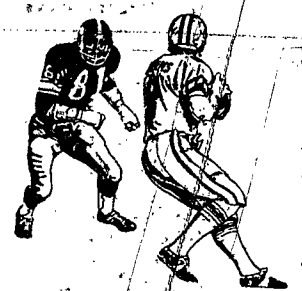

Fine running by runningback Mark Santalla, who had three carries for 50 yards, set up the two first quarter scores, carried in by Santalla. The extra point was scored on a quarterback sneak by Don Graham.

In the second half, with a 14 point lead, coach Curtis Thaxton sent all of his Gulfview players in to taste the action.

Defensive end Jay Wainwright, linebackers Kevin James and Mark Santalla, and cornerbacks Darren and Darrell Lee were cited by Thaxton as doing an outstanding job.

Gulfview goes to Pearl River Central to play October 6. Gametime is at 6 p.m.

Gulfview

The Gulfview fifth and sixth grade pigskin squad was handed an 8-6 defeat in an exciting overtime ballgame Monday against North Bay Elementary.

Carl Fricke scored for Gulfview on a three yard romp into the end zone. The conversion attempt was fumbled.

Nose guard Gene Davis, linebackers Mike Necaise and John Moran, defensive end Mark Necaise, and safety Donald Hudson were cited by head coach Curtis Thaxton for their play.

The Gulfview squad plays at Gulfview against Waveland Monday at 5 p.m.

Rocks eye third victory against Notre Dame tonight

By RICH ADAMS

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws, motivated by their second season win in as many games, will be looking for a third victory tonight, September 21, against Notre Dame in Biloxi.

"Notre Dame is probably one of the best teams in the conference this year," said Rocks' head coach Billy Poole.

"They have a fine defense, and haven't conceded a touchdown to another team yet," he added.

"Bay High defeated Notre Dame, but that was on a safety. Notre Dame beat Vancleave, and Vancleave is a very fine team," Poole said.

St. Stanislaus handed the St. John Eagles a 34-0 shutout last week, and defeated Pearl River Central 16-6 earlier this season.

"I'm real pleased with our offensive runningbacks," Poole continued.

"I didn't run Scott Senner, who ran tremendously against Pearl River, because the Eagles were overloading his side of the line," he said.

Randy Santa Cruz and Jimmy DeSilva were the high ground gainers for the Rocks last week.

Coach Poole reported no new injuries to the team as a result of Friday's match.

"Defensive end David Mead might return this next game," said Poole.

Mead, a senior, has been on the injured list all season since spraining his ankle earlier this year in practice.

The Rock-A-Chaws go to the road to take on Notre Dame tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Biloxi.

HNC 'resting' Friday, eyeing Notre Dame confrontation

By RICH ADAMS

Hancock North Central, holding a 3-0 record this season after defeating inter-city rival Bay High, 21-0, has the day off Friday with no game scheduled for the Hawks.

However, according to Hawk's head coach Irvin

Favre, the team will have no time to revel in their victory.

"The game against Bay High was one of our better games this year," coach Favre said.

"We eliminated some of our mistakes, but we could do a better job of blocking. We need improvement on our downfield blocking as well as our passing game," he continued.

"We're in good physical shape. I was well pleased with the game Friday," he said.

Coach Favre's Hawks dominated Friday's game, handing the Tigers their third loss for the season, HNC remaining undefeated.

"It was a very clean game. I thought Bay High was well prepared," he continued.

"It's hard to lose. I've been there before. Sometimes it is hard to keep from losing," he added.

"I was very pleased with the pass defense. We moved the ball well offensively, and we just went all out," he said.

"Now we're getting ready for St. Stanislaus," he added.

HNC goes against the Rock-A-Chaws Friday, September 29 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Stanislaus. The Rocks hold a 2-0 record, playing against Pearl River Central and St. John so far this year.

Rocks JV down St. John 34-0, remain undefeated

The St. Stanislaus Junior Varsity Rock-A-Chaws defeated the St. John JV squad Monday night, 35-0, extending the Rocks' record to 3-0.

The Rocks began their scoring with a 70 yard kickoff return by Marc Meyer. A Juan Betanzos conversion was good, giving the Rocks an early lead.

Later in the first quarter, junior quarterback Gary Sotak ran around the right end for a 50 yard touchdown.

The point after by Betanzos was good, extending the Rock lead to 14-0.

Still later in the first quarter, fullback Dave Boos carried a 40 yard run into the end zone for another St. Stanislaus score.

Another Betanzos extra point made the score 21-0.

The junior Rocks didn't score again until the fourth quarter, when Sotak completed a 35 yard pass to flanker Perre Cabell.

A two point conversion was successful with a pass to Dennis Scardino, making the score 29-0.

The final score came on a pitch out from sophomore signal caller Charlie Kraver to Betanzos.

The conversion was no good, capping a 35-0 victory for the Rocks.

The Mini-Rocks play Notre Dame Monday night at St. Stanislaus Stadium. Gametime is 6:30 p.m.

PURSUIT—Mackie Dedeaux, No. 22 for Pass Christian, starts a downfield run while being pursued by three d'Iberville Warrior defensive linemen. The Pirates lost the match, 21-0. (Staff photo-Rich Adams)

SPLASH! SPLASH!—Bay-Waveland Yacht Club's team captain, Chuck Breath, heads for the drink after his team captured the Annual Sir Thomas Lipton Challenge Trophy races Labor Day weekend. Breath had a little help in making the decision on the dip in the water. (Staff photo-Ellis Cuevas)

Less water in lakes may mean more fish

There soon will be less water in six Game and Fish Commission lakes and one delta oxbow lake. Fisheries biologists hope the practice will result in better fishing and fewer fish of some species.

Commission fisheries biologists started after Labor Day reducing the water level in lakes Bogue Homa east of Laurel, Tom Bailey east of Meridian, Simpson-Legion north of Magee, Columbia in west Marion County, Oktibeha west of Starkville, Tippah north of Ripley, and Eagle north of Vicksburg.

Necessary repairs to dams and water control structures will be made on some lakes during the low water period, while biologists hope to help control aquatic vegetation on other lakes.

"By pulling the lakes down fish will be concentrated in smaller water areas and this not only provides better fishing, but allows predator fish like bass and large crappie to thin-out smaller bluegill and other forage fish," Fisheries Chief Barry Freeman said.

"On Lake Columbia we are draining it completely so we can clean it out and restock with bass, bluegill and catfish. Also the draw-down on this lake will give our technicians the opportunity to measure the effectiveness of various fish sampling techniques such as shocking, tagging and population studies. All of the fish from this lake will be captured, weighed and sized," Freeman said.

Eagle Lake north of Vicksburg is also undergoing a water draw-down which, experts say, will reduce its level some four feet and provide improved fishing and maybe better fish populations. "We're hoping," Freeman said, "that the lower water level here will possibly solidify the bottom muds so that area fishermen will get better bass, bluegill and bream spawns in years ahead."

Freeman admitted that some pesticide residues which have plagued the lake over the years may be more rapidly broken down and eliminated.

In the past, Toxaphene levels in Eagle Lake fish have measured three parts-per-million. Commission biologists feel that this amount may have had some effect on fish populations and spawning.

Toxaphene is a widely-distributed chemical substance used to help control certain cotton insects. The Food and Drug Administration has said that fish for human consumption should not contain more than seven parts-per-million of the chemical.

14-0 victory

Pearl River shuts out Holmes; prepares for Saturday 'catfight'

Pearl River College remained undefeated here Saturday night with a 14-0 shutout over the Holmes Bulldogs.

The whitewash was the second in a row for the Wildcats and it put the PRC record at 3-0 for the season. The win also set-up the annual grudge match between the Cats and the undefeated Jones Bobcats in the Dobie Holden Stadium on the Pearl River Campus, Saturday night.

Pearl River opened the scoring early when freshman Rusty Highstreet, of Bassfield, tumbled over the goal line from the two. The run capped an eleven play, 45 yard drive, with sophomore Philip Lee adding the extra point with 8:43 remaining in the first period.

Holmes mounted only one sustained drive during the entire night and that came early in the second quarter when the Bulldogs marched from their own 34 to the PRC 19. Stellar defensive efforts pushed the Holmes team back to the 29 and ended the threat. The offensive unit of the Wildcats continued to have problems until the fourth quarter, however, the defensive effort was nothing short of impressive. The PRC defense allowed the Bulldogs only five first downs the entire night and a mere 11 yards rushing total.

In fact, the Cats shut down the Bulldog offense with hard, vicious tackling. Holmes first two quarterbacks were knocked from the lineup as the Bulldogs racked up only 58 total yards.

The defense has allowed 14 points in three games and shut out the opposition for the last eight quarters.

The last PRC touchdown came with 13:20 remaining in the contest on a 12 yard run by quarterback David Wyman. Lee added the extra point and the scoring was over for the night.

Holmes had a couple golden opportunities in the last quarter as the Bulldogs took over on a fumble and pass interception. The Bulldog advantage was short lived, however, as the PRC defense pushed the Holmes quarterbacks for big losses.

Ricky McDaniels of Columbia had a big night and for his efforts was named the Outstanding Defensive Player of the game. Jeffery Reid, an offensive guard from Bay St. Louis, was the Cats Outstanding Offensive Player of the week.

Anthony Jackson of Picaune was the game's leading rusher with 77 yards on 11 attempts. Micky Walker, also of Picaune, picked up 47 yards on eight tries.

Andy Thames, a tight end from Hattiesburg, caught three passes for 42 yards. Quarterback Joey Howard completed 6 of 12 aerials for 39 yards and one touchdown. Wyman hit 2 of 3 for 34 yards.

This Saturday night will mark the battle of the undefeated, cat versus cat style, when the Pearl River College Wildcats meet the Jones Junior College Bobcats in the Dobie Holden Stadium.

Year after year the south division of the Mississippi Junior College Conference is decided when the powers of south Mississippi collide.

This year is no different. Four teams are posting perfect records in the state after three games and Pearl River, Gulf Coast and Jones are three of them. Mississippi Delta of the north is that divisions only team with an unblemished ledger.

That ratio will certainly drop after Saturday night as the PRC Wildcats host Jones and Gulf Coast takes on the Trojans in Biloxi. It's a vicious and competitive triangle that has developed between the schools at Ellisville, Poplarville and Perkinston.

The team with the edge after playing the other two is usually the one making plans for the state championship. Last year, the Bobcats from Jones beat the other two. Consequently, the Bobcats went on to win the south division and a berth in the Junior College Rosebowl in Pasadena, California.

In 1976 the Pearl River Wildcats won over the Bobcats and Bulldogs and that enabled the J. C. Arban led Cats to the Mississippi crown.

In 1975 Gulf Coast beat the other two and it meant the south division crown for their school.

Pearl River and Jones have met every year since 1948 with the Wildcats winning 19 times and the Bobcats 11. The eleven Jones victories over Pearl River are more than any other school in the state can boast of.

Last year the Bobcats won over the Wildcats rather convincingly, 27-6. But the two years before that the PRC eleven came out on top, 14-7 and 28-6.

"It should be an outstanding game," said J. C. Arban, PRC's head coach, "the Bobcats are a very solid football team, with a good offense and defense." PRC, on the other hand, has a very impressive defensive unit and an offensive unit that looks good most of the time, but sputters on occasions.

The Wildcats opened with a 20-14 win over the Northeast Tigers and then put together back to back shut-outs over the Hind Eagles, 27-0, and Holmes, 14-0. The ledger shows the Wildcats scoring 61 points in three games while giving up 14 in the same period of time.

Jones opened with a 27-0 shellacking of the Holmes Bulldogs and then took narrow 16-14 and 7-6 decisions over Col. Lin and Northwest. The stat sheet has the Bobcats scoring 51 points and giving up 20.

What all the figures and stats show for the upcoming game is the fact that whichever team makes the fewest number of mistakes will probably claim that all important advantage.

"We must play the best game of the year, this Saturday," Arban said, "our fumbles, and interceptions must be omitted." Pearl River leads in every statistic that can be dreamed-up against oppositions this season. The Wildcats have the most yards, most first downs, most plays, but also the most turnovers.

In three games the Wildcats have turned over the ball 13 times; giving up six fumbles and 7 interceptions. PRC's opposition has had 11 turnovers.

Coach Sim Cooley, head coach of the Bobcats, echoed the sentiments of Arban by saying, "the team making the fewest mistakes will win." However, the Bobcats are not doing much better holding on to the ball than the Cats.

According to Cooley, his Bobcats have bobbled the ball away close to a dozen times this year. "We have had several drives stopped because we didn't hold onto the football," the JuCo coach of the year said. "And the problem is that it is not just one individual giving up the ball - it is several players."

Leading the Bobcats this Saturday will be running back sensation Junior Wallace. He starred last year for the Jones team and is back again this season averaging over 100 yards per contest. PRC, on the other hand, has given up only 188 total rushing yards through three games.

Respect is the name of the game and that is exactly what Arban and Cooley have for each other. The feeling is the same for the players on each squad. So the time is once again here for someone to take a giant step to the south division crown.

Game time is 7:30 in the Dobie Holden Stadium on the PRC campus.

Weekend gymnastic workshop offered at UMW October 6, 7, 8

A gymnastic event dubbed "Gymnastics Oktoberfest" will be held at Mississippi University for Women on Oct. 6-8 for high school girls and their coaches.

"The purpose of the weekend is to bring high school girls and their coaches together in an informal recreational setting for a fun weekend and to promote gymnastics in the South," said Martha Fulton, gymnastics coach at The W and a coordinator of the event.

"Gymnastics Oktoberfest" will allow coaches to "share ideas, work with their teams informally and not be under any strain of competition, judging or learning compulsories," Miss Fulton said.

"We're offering a weekend of non-pressure."

The name "Oktoberfest" suggests an old-world event characterized by joviality and comradery.

A highlight of the gymnastics weekend will be a special performance by Florida State University's famous "Flying High Circus" on Oct. 7 at 3 p.m.

Teams, which will work out in the well-equipped gymnastic room in the new Pohl Physical Education Assembly Building, will participate in an "open gym" performance on Oct. 7 at 7 p.m.

In addition to working on gymnastics in a non-pressured atmosphere, visiting high school gymnasts may "swim in our Olympic-sized pool, play tennis and bike on our lovely campus," Miss Fulton noted.

High school and junior college students will have a chance to go with their gymnastics peers on a strictly fun weekend, the M.U.W. mentor continued.

Meals and lodging will be provided by the University. "The only expense for coaches and their teams will be transportation to and from Columbus," said Miss Fulton.

Coaches and their teams planning to attend Gymnastics Oktoberfest should send the names of their school or club, the school address and the number and names of coaches and students attending to Gymnastics Oktoberfest, P.O. Box W-501, Mississippi University for Women, Columbus, Miss. 39701.

JOY HATCHETT

Hatchett showing, reception set for Library

A collection of paintings by Joy Hatchett will be displayed at the Waveland Library and Civic Center from Wednesday through October 11. Sponsored by the Hancock County Library System, the show will open with a reception in the Waveland Civic Center from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 27th.

Ms. Hatchett, a Mississippi native, has been residing in Waveland for the past 15 months after working and studying in California and New Orleans.

Raised in Clinton, the daughter of an artist father, she displayed her own talent for years.

In California, under the encouragement of floral artist Lola Aides that she began development of the use of light and color which characterizes her art.

For three years she worked in New Orleans, joining artists around Jackson Square, the world's largest outdoor art colony.

In the Crescent City she worked with Herbert D'Arce and Raymond Scully in her technique while branching out from floral subject matter to various other studies.

Painting flowers remains her first love. "The fragile beauty of a rose petal," says Ms. Hatchett, "provides the perfect study of interplay of line, light and texture." And flowers carry so much emotion, sometimes happy and carefree, sometimes soft and sensuous, sometimes sparkling and jewel-like, but always delicate and lovely.

Her works hang in every state as well as internationally in England, France, Japan, Brazil, and Iran.

Among collectors owning her paintings are Rosalyn Carter, Congressman Daniel Rostenkowski, Mrs. Arthur C. Haye, Lucette Bacon, and Suzanne Plechette.

Locally, her work is handled by the Golden Parrot, Waveland; Jack's Restaurant, Waveland; the Blouin Gallery, New Orleans; and the Artique, Slidell.

Long Beach campus sets arson confab

A unique University of Southern Mississippi workshop on anti-arson will examine everything from the motivation and psychology of the arsonist to the determination of death in cases of fire.

Sponsored by USM's Forensic Science Program in cooperation with the Department of Criminal Justice, the workshop is designed for fire personnel, police, insurance investigators, attorneys, coroners and criminal justice students.

The intensive three-day workshop will be conducted by experts from different parts of the U.S. and Great Britain at the USM regional campus in Long Beach Oct. 26-28.

Workshop director Dennis Canfield, an assistant professor and forensic science coordinator at USM, is a specialist in arson and explosives. He formerly served as senior forensic chemist for the New Jersey State Police for five years.

Co-director is Dr. William Taylor, associate professor of criminal justice at USM.

Guest lecturers will include Dr. David Paul, the Queen of England's coroner for the City of London; James Crutcher, chief deputy fire marshal for the state of Mississippi; Mike Higgins, president of Laboratory Instrumentation Services in Boston; Charles Marx, assistant professor of criminal justice at USM as well as a member of the criminal investigation Bureau Arson Squad with the New Jersey State Police.

Registration will be held each day of the workshop at Gulf Park's Hardy Hall from 8-9 a.m. Further information is available from the USM Department of Conferences and Workshops, USM-Gulf Park.

Women invited to program planning meet

Women representing all strata are invited to attend the opening planning session for programs on and for women in south Mississippi Friday at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

The morning session has been scheduled from 10 a.m. to noon. The general invitation also includes a scheduled 9:30 a.m. coffee in Room A of the Union on campus.

There is no charge for the session open to all interested women, whether a homemaker or career woman. Spokeswoman Anne Jordan of USM said the session is sponsored by the Mississippi Committee for the Humanities and USM.

Jordan, along with Sara Kay

Lehrer, Sylvia Edwards, Louise Baker, Charlotte Tullos and Beverly Maddox are members of the host committee and the University Committee on Services and Resources for Women. Maddox organized the program for the planning session.

Jordan said the meeting's primary purpose is to gather ideas for the Committee on Services and Resources for Women and to secure input for a scheduled "Images '78" program.

Session consultants include Elizabeth Meese of the University of Alabama and Susan Gore of Texas Christian University.

Participating humanists are Thomas Panko, Karen Austin and Peggy Prentiss, all of USM; Jan Lewis of Mississippi State University and a fellow for the Center for Women in Politics at Rutgers University and Deborah Gambrell of Hattiesburg.

Improvements at Biloxi VA Center cost $1.3 million

Improved veterans programs that brought $242.5 million to Mississippi during Fiscal Year 1977, was highlighted in VA's annual report recently sent to Congress by Administrator of Veterans Affairs Max Cleland.

The report outlines the scope of the agency's record $19 billion expenditure in support of the nation's 30 million veterans.

The VA chief said the 355-page document reflects "unparalleled improvements in medical care, and increased compensation and pension payments to Mississippi veterans." In Jackson VA Center Director Lamar Warnock said more than 69,000 Mississippi veterans received $137.4 million from the agency as pension and compensation benefits.

According to Warnock, the more than 244,000 veterans who live in Mississippi were potentially eligible for VA medical spending that totaled $57,788,542 in the state's two hospitals and a domiciliary.

Several VA construction projects were either awarded, in-progress, or completed last year in Mississippi. Those with estimated price tags in excess of $1 million include the Biloxi Center when an emergency generator and electrical improvements at a cost of $1,345,000 were funded.

Abrams attends retired execs Biloxi session

The State Convention of SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) was held September 7, 8 at the Sheraton-Biloxi Motor Inn.

Members were welcomed to Biloxi on behalf of Mayor O'Keefe and the Key to the City was presented to Guy Wetherell, local SCORE Chapter Chairman.

Chit Anderson, Mississippi Research and Development Center, Long Beach, was the keynote speaker at the luncheon. Anderson pointed out the challenges and difficulties faced by small businesses in days of inflation and the part played by SCORE to help small businessmen "weather" these conditions.

Curet, Rosemary Frechou and Mark Blackledge.

Preference shown for Cochran in recent teacher's poll

Although Mississippi teachers showed a preference for Republican senatorial candidate Thad Cochran, results of a recent political poll were inadequate to support an endorsement for any candidate.

The Mississippi Political Action Council of Teachers, or M-PACT, said it would make no endorsements in either the senatorial or congressional races, since the votes in each race fell short of the number needed under rules of the group, an arm of the Mississippi Association of Educators.

Dexter Montgomery of Army, M-PACT state chairman, said the guidelines required a two-thirds vote of at least half of the 2,500 members for a candidate to be endorsed.

Of the educators responding to the mailed ballots, 49 percent supported Cochran, 25.6 percent favored Democratic nominee Maurice Dantin and 21.3 percent voted for black independent Charles Evers in the Senate race. Black independent Henry Ramsey did not show up in the balloting.

The Democratic candidates were preferred in the four contested U.S. House races.

Montgomery said that while no candidate received the required number of votes, he believed the totals were "indicative of what our people are thinking."

John Ashley, MAE executive secretary, said organization leaders were disappointed at the response to the balloting, the group's first major attempt to exert influence in an election. But he said the MAE had built in "too many safeguards" when it adopted the voting rules about three years ago.

Barbara Loper, coordinator of governmental relations for the group, said a committee would make a study of the rules and recommend changes in December.

Ashley said the organization wanted to be ready for next year's state and legislative elections.

"Next year is really more important as far as we are concerned," he said.

Montgomery said that while there would not be an endorsement of candidates at the state level, local MAE groups were free to declare for candidates.

Bienville Community Baptists to host Hobolochitto session

The Bienville Baptist Church in the Bienville Community, West Hancock County, will be host to the 122nd annual session of the Hobolochitto Baptist Association Saturday.

The Rev. L.R. Lewis, missionary-pastor of the Central Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis, is associational missionary, and will give his annual report following opening devotional services.

The meeting will be called to order for business at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Harry Burge, Carriere, moderator.

A public worship service is set for 11 a.m. with Rev. Richard Smith of Picayune bringing the message. Dinner will be served picnic style at noon.

The Hobolochitto Association is composed of some 28 independent Baptist churches in Hancock and Pearl River Counties. These churches also cooperate in the educational, missionary and benevolent activities of the Baptist Missionary Association of America.

The official body is composed of not more than five "messengers" from each church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Legal Secretaries Association meets

John A. Scafide Jr., of the law firm of Favre, Genin & Scafide, Bay St. Louis, was guest speaker at the Sept. 13 meeting of Harrison and Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association at the Best Western Gulfport Inn.

Scafide spoke on the Uniform Commercial Code, its rules and regulations as they relate to the legal secretary.

Henrietta Caranna announced the annual Day-in-Court program will be held Oct. 21, and that an actual medical malpractice case will be presented.

Captain Kangaroo picture pages available at Library

The Hancock County Library System is providing a new program for pre-school children in cooperation with the Captain Kangaroo Show sent locally at 8 a.m. each weekday on WVL Channel 4, New Orleans.

Beginning September 25, for 20 weeks, each library in the Hancock County Library will provide a weekly "Picturepage" for pre-school children to complete along with Captain Kangaroo.

The "Picturepages" are a fun way for a pre-school child to develop learning skills at his own pace. The game-like approach is not only entertaining, but provides for the direct involvement of each child by following along at home with his or her "Picturepage" booklet, according to Prima Wusnack, library director.

Participation is limited to 50 children. Parents interested in having their children participate should contact Mrs. Rhodes or Ms. Dearman at City-County Library, 467-5282, and register the child's name so that he will be assured of receiving a "Picturepage" each week from either Waveland Library, Kiln Library, City-County Library, or the Hancock County Bookmobile.
